50th Anniversary Celebration
Saturday and Sunday
November 12th and 13th

Christ Lutheran Church has served our Lord in this community for 50 years! It is time to celebrate and remember all that God has done here through Christ! We are hopeful that many old friends and members will be able to come and celebrate with us as we mark this anniversary.

Plans are to begin on Saturday evening at 5:30pm for a social hour then dinner at 6:30pm with a program celebrating the history and ministry of Christ Lutheran Church through writings, music, photos and stories.

On Sunday morning we will have one Festival Worship Service starting at 9:30am with a choir of members from the present and the past. Following the service there will be a reception in the parish hall.

If you have pictures or any memorabilia of Christ Lutheran's past, please bring them for the display table. And if you have any questions about the celebration, please contact our Anniversary team: Kenny Krebs, Thorun Olsen, and Kathy Fankhauser.

Don't miss this wonderful event and time to celebrate what God has done in our midst!

Come and celebrate!

A note from Pastor Gordy

Greetings!

Fall is certainly here! The rhythm of school has settled in and Sunday School programs are underway. Things are definitely picking up around Christ! Many thanks to those of you who are helping out to restore the church building and offering your time and talents with the ministries of the church!

In early summer we began a conversation about where God is calling us as God's people here on Haywood Lane. It was a good conversation and one that has already begun to bear fruit. We are living into those words that we shared on that day with a revitalized youth ministry, an outreach to children in our neighborhoods, and yes, even some traction on a van! It is important for us to continue to talk together as God's people and have these times for communal discernment for a closer following of where we feel God is leading us.

God has assembled a mighty crew of servants here! One way we get a sense of where God is leading us is by looking at how God has equipped us and has or can use us in the context of our own community. When we look around at our congregation and see the many gifts and talents that are present here then we can see that God has gifted us for ministry in many ways.

On Sunday, October 16th after the late service, we will gather again to continue the conversation. We will look more intently at our gifts and talents in light of our sense of call to mission and ministry in this place. I hope that all of you will be present for this important as we consider our response to God's call.

God's peace and love be with you all.

Pastor+

October Worship Changes

Children's Message will now be in the beginning of the service

Starting Sunday, October 2nd, we will move the children's message to earlier in the service. Children of all ages need to hear the Word proclaimed and shared. Now that Ms. Katherine, our youth minister, offer a lectionary based Bible lesson for our youngest youth in the nursery, we will have the children's message at the beginning of the service, then those children 6 and under may go to the nursery to hear the lessons in a more accessible way.

At the sharing of the peace, Ms. Katherine will escort the children back to the parents so that they may join us at the Table for Holy Communion. If you prefer that your child remain in the nursery we will have a volunteer there available. Just let Ms. Katherine know at the beginning of the service.

Liturgical Dance Group Forming

Dancers wanted! No experience necessary!

We are forming a liturgical dance group that will offer liturgical dance during our festival Sundays. Wilma Prince is the lead for this group and will be working with Ted Wilson and Diana Revell to choreograph the dance pieces.

If you are interested in learning more or would like to participate please contact Wilma Prince!

CLCW NEWS

Ladies, you missed an opportunity to “Renew Your Heart” at the WELCA convention in Sept. Twelve of us, including Pastors’ Morgan and Esther, represented the CLC women. While the pastors served as our chaplains and led services, Maggie Sanders was our delegate; Dian Luffman is synod treasurer; Diana Revell led the choir (it was awesome); Wilma Prince choreographed & performed a beautiful liturgical dance; and Clara Chesbro provided the chocolate hearts for the centerpieces (no, I didn’t get a centerpiece, but I got a heart...yummy!). We done good!

Last year, CLC donated 205 lbs. of items for Lutheran World Relief, along with 15 quilts. This year we were credited with 877 lbs. (200 of that being soap) but no quilts (I miss quilting...anyone interested?). We sent 161 school kits. Way to go CLC (and the square dancers)!!!

This year, we are setting a goal of 500 lbs. of soap & a total of 1200 lbs. of items to send to LWR. Continue to bring soap & school supplies & CLCW will provide bags & pack them (we’ll also provide directions to make the bags if desired). We would like the personal care kits, fabric kits, and the baby care kits already packaged & ready to go. Watch for posters to monitor our progress. We can do this!!!

Remember to sign up for babysitting, Oct 7th & 8th. Please, Please, Please!! Upcoming events include:

- Oct. 21-22: Women’s Retreat
- Oct. 29: “Trunk or Treat” 6-7:30pm
- Nov. 17: Thanksgiving dinner and annual meeting with the election of 2 positions
- Dec. 10(tentative date): Cookie Exchange at Marlene Finneys’

Until next month, Namaste, Kris Rabon

HABARI [News] from Pastor Esther

ELCA AFRICAN NATIONAL LEADERS SUMMIT 09/08 – 09/10/2011

Dr. Robert Mushi and Pastor Esther Ngomuo represented Swahili Service Christ Lutheran Church to the African National Leaders Summit of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA).

The Summit was held in the City of Chicago, Illinois at the Lutheran Center from September 8-10, 2011.

The theme of the summit was “One Lord, one faith, one baptism” Ephesians 4:5 “United We Stand, Divided We Fall”.

The objectives of the summit were:

1. To empower and encourage ELCA African Nationals Leaders in their respective ministries and in God’s mission.
2. To network African Nationals Leaders in the ELCA for more effective partnerships in ministry.
3. To engage ELCA African Nationals Leaders with new development and opportunities in mission.

The Summit began with a spirit-filled Opening Service with Rev. Dr. Joseph Bocko serving as the Presiding Minister, Jonathan Hevita as Assisting Minister, Laka Negassa as Reader and Communion Minister and Adam Emil Robertson as the Musician.

In his sermon addressing the theme “United We Stand, Divided We Fall”.

Ephesians 1-16 and the gospel lesson Luke 15:13-32.

He recounted the story of the parable of the Prodigal son, how a Father treats his son after the son has declared his independence from him. When he returns his father treats him as his son who was entitled to all he has and won’t allow him to be a servant but only his son. This tells us how God thinks and treats us. We declare our independence from him and sin against him but when we realize we need our father and ask for forgiveness He forgives us and rejoices and makes us His son not a servant. God wants family members not servants, wants relationship not religion, and want His family to share in His Kingdom that has everything you have always been looking for but couldn’t find. God stands with arms stretched wide open waiting for our return. The Father was moved by what He saw and He was moved by love into action. Love without action is not love at all. Words of love with no action to accompany them, is of no value.

The father reinstated the son after the prodigal acknowledged his sin. The older brother became judgmental. How many legalistic older brothers keep the younger ones from walking in the fullness of God because some-thing does not fit their idea of how God operates? The older brother's attitude represents those who have a form of religion, those who, in the eyes of the world, seem to be in tune. We must be accountable for our actions. But it is extremely important that we share the whole gospel. God is calling out to both groups — to the prodigals and to the older brothers. He invites both to repent, to return, and to walk in true fellowship both with Him and with each other. God is calling the African Nationals to build The Church. We must be prepared to share God's love with others. It is time to repent of wrong attitudes and allow God to heal the wounds with love. Communion was served followed by dinner and Regional Group meetings: South Sudan, West Africa, Swahili speaking, Ethiopia, Oromo, and Southern Africa etc.

Dr. Emmanuel Grantson expressively recounted why are we here? He noted that the purpose of this Summit was to use this opportunity to reaffirm the call for unity, solidarity and cooperation among the African Nationals in the ELCA .

Dr. Sherman Hicks, Executive Director, Specific Ethnic Ministries, at ELCA welcomed the delegates and introduced Bishop Mark Hanson.

Bishop Mark Hanson expressed a warm and heartfelt welcome to the convention delegates. He urged the delegates to put aside individual differences and all other vices that have the potential of creating a divide amongst members. Bishop Hanson who spoke from Ephesians 2:11-21 on the theme “How to be a Church Together.” Jesus tore down dividing walls. The text speaks of the essence of unity. It deals with the reconciliation which God has brought between himself and fallen man through Jesus Christ. The reconciliation which God has accomplished between Jews and Gentiles, through the work of Jesus Christ. Paul tells us that we become a new person when we are born again. In Ephesians chapter 2, Paul tells us that in Christ, Jews and Gentiles lose their “Jewishness” and “Gentileness” and are fashioned into one new entity, the church. Through the death, burial, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ, God reconciled all who are in Christ to Himself. There are not two walls, one Jewish and the other Gentile. The walls are made up of Jewish and Gentile saints, made one in Christ. Everyone who believes in Christ is a part of His body.

The Executive Director for Synodical Missions, Stephen Bouman also made remarks following the Bishop's visionary statement. He looked at Paul and all the characteristics he demonstrated as a pastor. We need to bring together our giftedness challenged us to use the opportunity to reaffirm the call to work harder to bridge the gap and to promote community cohesion through a variety of social, cultural and economic perspectives to inform, educate and support members.

Rev. Dr. Rafael Malpica Padilla, Executive Director, ELCA Global Mission, pointed to the strong relationship between our churches, which is firmly grounded in our partnership in the gospel and our common call to mission. He said how much the ELCA value the diversity and ideas which individual can contribute and have the opportunity to be heard.

In his presentation on Renewed Evangelizing Congregations, Ruben Duran informed the gathering that the ELCA is not only committed to starting new congregations but deeply dedicated to the renewal of existing congregations. A primary objective of the ELCA renewal process is to guide congregations in discerning their purpose and developing a new mission plan so that they can help meet the needs, hopes and dreams of their communities.

Joe Young , Director for Community Development Services presented an informative workshop on what his unit does in the ELCA Community Development Services accompanies and assists ELCA congregations, social ministry organizations, and grassroots community-based nonprofits that address poverty and social justice issues.

Dr. Joseph Bocko revisited the objectives of the Summit and the accomplishments of the deliberations. In closing remarks Dr. Sherman Hicks admonished his audience to desist from doing things which basically has a negative and mediocre connotation. He called for a paradigm shift that would lead to high expectations for every African National leader. He averred that this gift to the church should no longer be satisfied with the status quo; but rather they should strive for and demand high expectations of themselves and others.

M. Dr Albert Starr, Director for African Descent Ministries, reviewed ELCA African Descent Strategic Plan. He emphasized how the African nationals Ministries can develop a full partnership with the ELCA through that plan especially in the areas of evangelism, education, stewardship, worship and social ministry. ~

Planning for our ecumenical Swahili Worship Service, Dr. Robert Mushi, Pastor Esther, and Pastor Kamou [above]

At the September 2011 Synod Council meeting the Swahili Worshipping Community here at Christ was approved to become a Synodically Authorized Worshipping Community!

Stewardship News

STEWARDSHIP THROUGH THE CATHECHISM – Part I

By Sandra L. Braasch, Diaconal Minister

How you ever realized how the Catechism represents the theological “guts” for how stewardship works? Luther wrote about how important it was for him to repeat and practice the catechism each day- even though he could not master it. What role might the six chief parts of the catechism play in defining or practicing stewardship?

The Catechism has six parts: The Commandments; The Apostles’ Creed; The Lord’s Prayer; Baptism; Eucharist; and [The Keys].

Stewardship can be tied to each section of the catechism. All parts of the catechism are put together in an important way. What comes first? The Word of God comes first in our lives and is paramount. It always comes to us as law and gospel. The power of stewardship becomes real only when we first “hear” God’s Word. And when the Word comes, it comes to us three special ways; as law (commandments), as promise (the creed), and as prayer for the kingdom of God (Lord’s Prayer). Stewardship, therefore, is grounded in God’s Word bringing to us the law, the promise and the kingdom.

Stewardship is a response of faith to God’s Word especially shaped by the church’s two Sacraments. We hear God’s Word of grace. As mentioned above, stewardship begins with grasping the gospel of Jesus Christ, the justification of the sinner by grace alone through faith alone. So how should we sinners respond to this grace once we “get it”? Our responses are taught through worship. Our liturgies and rituals should help us learn stewardship. Just like any athlete practices for the real game, liturgies teach us Christian practices for our real lives as a disciple of Christ. This is particularly true about how we build the ongoing practices of baptism and communion into our weekly worship.

Lutheran liturgy represents the shape of our catechism – as a communal ritual. Now that we have heard of God’s amazing gift in Christ, how do we respond as a disciple? Three responses from the catechism include:

- Pray for the Kingdom of God in our lives (both individually and collectively). Prayer and praise are direct responses to hearing God’s Word. The Word focuses our attention on Christ and his gifts to us. Our prayers are directed to how the kingdom – Jesus’ presence in the world – is being manifested among us.
- Confessing one’s identity with the life of the Triune God in response to the Word of God, we reaffirm our faith through acts of verbal confessing. This confessing is always tied to the act of baptism. Confessing the faith as verbal witness is actually taught in our worship experience through: confessing our sin, communal confession of the creeds of the church, and personal testimonies (through personal sharing or hymn singing).
- Participating in the Communion Liturgy (the sharing of gifts). One of the most illuminating stewardship rituals is the communion liturgy. It teaches us first how to hear God’s word. Secondly, it gives us the opportunity to respond with offering ourselves to God as a living sacrifice. Finally, it shows how God accepts, purifies and returns our gifts as a blessing to the community and world.
